PHYSICALLY

This year has brought many changes in both our school and ourselves. Old Fort students have grown in mind, body, and spirit this past year. Within these pages is captured the commemorative record of the past year.

We developed physically by attending physical education classes where we perfected some particular skill. Some of us participated in school sports, enabling Old Fort High to compete with neighboring schools.

The 3:15 bell did not end our connection with Old Fort High for the day. We had club or committee meetings to attend, projects to carry out, and ballgames to attend, where we cheered our teams on to victory. These and other activities brought us together with our friends and fellow students and enabled us to exchange ideas and opinions.

HOECOMING- Queens and pageantry.

FRIENDS- People to laugh, talk, and study with.

and fellowship

It was easy for us to leave our worries on the doorstep when we were met by friendly greetings and smiling faces at Old Fort High each day. We will always remember the hurried conversations with our friends before the morning bell, during the minutes between classes, or after lunch. Memories of our friends will always be linked with club meetings we attended, work we did as a service to our school, or maybe going to that favorite game where, win or lose, we knew Old Fort High excelled in school spirit.

through physical

Physical education classes provided recreation for boys and girls. Calisthenics began a period of both team and individual sports.

During the fall months, football was the major sport; but as colder weather came, basketball took over. At last the warm spring days arrived, and classes again moved outside. Track and baseball became the rage.

GIRLS' P.E.- A studious way to stay slim and trim.

education and health giving sports . . .

DANCING- A means of obtaining grace and poise.

Acquiring knowledge, understanding, and, eventually, wisdom - These were the common goals of students at Old Fort High School during the 1964-65 school year. The curriculum which the school offered added much to our store of knowledge and augmented our appreciation of learning. Association and fellowship with friends and acquaintances increased our understanding immeasurably. Wisdom, which one can never fully attain, comes as a result of a lifetime of learning, not only through organized study but also through experience.

To become a well-rounded individual, one must be vigilant in his search for both scientific and spiritual truth. Through study, reading, experimentation, and research, he achieves scientific truth in all fields of learning. Through a study of literature, through dedicated living and insight he arrives at spiritual truth.

MR. MILTON HORNADAY has endeared himself to the Senior Class by his many helpful contributions of time and advice. Etched indelibly on the heart of each senior is the memory of his earnest concern for their futures. At present Mr. Hornaday is counselor, but in the past he has taught many of the seniors how to think for themselves. Now by dedicating this 1965 edition of THE ARROWHEAD to him, we the Senior Class wish to express our heartfelt thanks.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION

P. W. Greer, Principal

Principal P. W. Greer's efforts to continue to improve the quality of education led to a successful re-accreditation at the state level last year. This year the goal is accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Mr. Greer has directed the faculty in a variety of complex activities prerequisite to a visit by the accrediting committee.

Mr. James E. Johnson
County Superintendent

To be successful, a large organization must have efficient management. We are fortunate in having Mr. James E. Johnson and his office staff to supervise the activities of the principals and faculties in their efforts toward accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Records, schedules, and absence lists are only a few of the multitude of tasks with which Mrs. Margie Thomason, school secretary, must cope.

Mr. Milton Hornaday works out of the county office as guidance counselor to students of two of the five high schools. At Old Fort, he works with Mrs. Bula Taylor who is a part-time counselor.

ACTIVITIES

Delores Robertson, selected queen by the student body, reigned over the Homecoming festivities.

Muddy from rugged action, co-captain Terry Hendley crowned Queen Delores as fellow co-captain Jimmy Moore presented her with flowers.

Chosen by the seniors to represent them in the Homecoming Court were Helen Cosgrove, Pat Grindstaff, Delores Robertson, Pat Elliott, and Linda Lytle.

HOMECOMING

After much preparation, the long awaited Homecoming Day finally arrived. The afternoon was marked by a parade, and spirits were running high. At half-time, an exciting game between the Redskins and Salem Tigers was scoreless but ended in a 12-0 defeat for Old Fort.

FALL FESTIVAL

The climax of the evening was "Swan Lake" featuring some of Old Fort's loveliest beauties. Delicate and poised the performers smilingly entertained their captivated audience.

Instead of the usual Halloween Carnival, members of the Old Fort community were entertained by a Fall Festival. November 6 was a rollicking evening filled with whole-hearted laughter and fun. The evening began with a turkey supper with all the trimmings. Afterwards, a stage show presented a womanless wedding and an Old Fort version of Swan Lake. Only local talent was used in the Festival. Each spectator now eagerly awaits next year's activities.

The womanless wedding wrought havoc in the audience as the petite bride wed her muscular spouse.

Reigning over the evening's activities were Queen Pat Elliott, King Terry Hendley, Princess Diana Allison, and Prince Jimmy Brown.

A newly organized group, the Arrowhead Cloggers, manipulated their intricate maneuvers. Organized by Mrs. Gladys Gibbs, the Cloggers work hard to be an effective group.

Teepee Journal Helps Maintain Good Public Relations

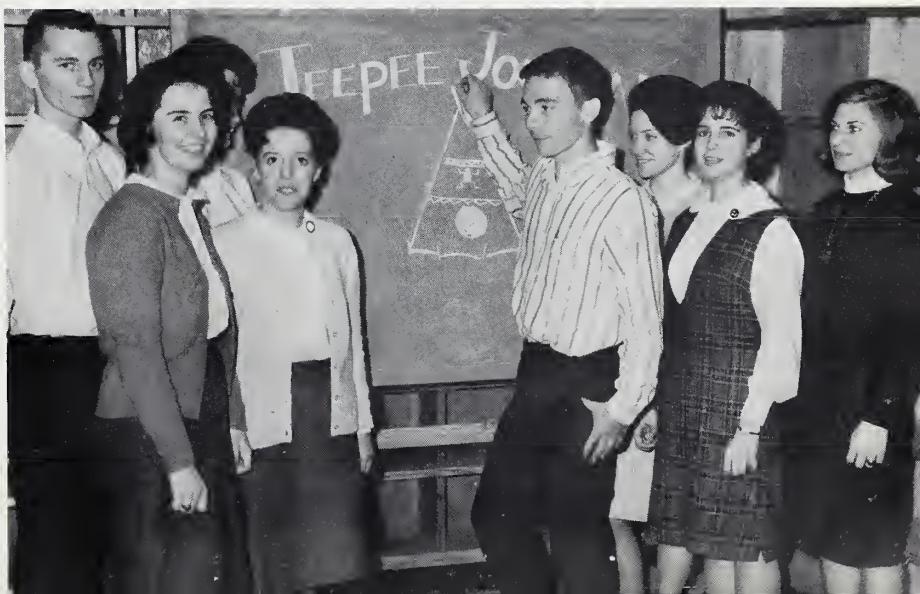

Operating under a new system this year, the TEEPEE JOURNAL has four co-sponsors; Mrs. Betty Marston, Mrs. Dessie Titus, Mrs. Sylvia Howe, and Miss Phyllis Moore. Three classes, senior, junior, and sophomore each publish two editions of the newspaper. The major work is done in the English classes and then edited by a permanent editorial staff.

TEEPEE JOURNAL

Through the development of homemaking skills, the Future Homemakers of America strive to foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life.

Mrs. Glovier, club sponsor, explains to members the purpose of F.H.A.

Tomorrow's homemakers may be inspired through the leadership of Joan Mason, president; Gail McGinnis, reporter; Judy Allison, secretary; Mary Lewis, parliamentarian; Linda Wilson, vice-president; and Meredith Vess, song leader.

The main project of the local chapter of the Future Teachers of America is to provide money for scholarships for students who are planning to become teachers. Recipients of last year's awards were Judy Jenkins, a freshman at Appalachian State Teachers College, and Peggy Lackey, a Western Carolina College freshman.

Max Gilliam's years of experience in driving his own tractor helped him to win third place in the tractor driving contest at the State Fair in Raleigh.

Leading the F. F. A. members in development of individual farming programs is President Coy Davis. Other officers are Max Gilliam, vice-president; Carroll Hall, treasurer; Lloyd Lytle, sentinel; and Wade Walker, reporter.

Mr. Donald Anderson, sponsor of the Future Farmers of America Club, lectures on electrical wiring.

F.F.A

To develop competent, aggressive rural and agricultural leadership is an important objective of the F. F. A. Club. In order to achieve this goal, F. F. A. members participate in many activities: land judging contests, tool identification contests, and cattle judging contests.

CERCLE FRANCAIS

Under the direction of Mrs. Sylvia Howe, the newly organized French Club has completed a busy first year. The members have learned much of France, her people and their customs.

BETA CLUB

Honesty—

Service—

Leadership—

Mr. Donald Smith and Mrs. Martha Fender, sponsors of the Beta Club, devote much time and thought toward making the club a worthwhile activity.

Leading the Beta Club this year are Billy Snyder, vice-president, Theresa Early, reporter; Sandra Knupp, president; and Rita Silver, secretary.

INTERACT

Interact, which is affiliated with the Rotary Club, was organized as a non-profit group to assist in raising money for various projects, both school and community. To be eligible for membership, a boy must excel academically or athletically and possess certain leadership qualities.

Mr. Kenneth Griffin, president of the Rotary Club, is sponsoring the club this year.

Leading the club through its first year are Allen Jones, president; Ronnie Richardson, vice-president; Billy Snyder, treasurer; and Mike Ramsey, secretary.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Informal meetings encourage participation and afford each member an opportunity to express his ideas. Completion of the handbook for high school students was a high point of the year.

Our Student Council is a working organization

Giving unselfishly of her time, Mrs. Taylor, Student Council sponsor, sets an example which the students try to measure up to. Her years of faithful service inspire the students.

ARROWHEAD

ADVERTISING STAFF

This year's Advertising Staff consisted of Jimmy Willis, business manager; Ronnie Nodine, Rita Silver, Toni Teague, Carroll Turner, Linda Caplan, Helen Cosgrove, Ronnie Richardson, Judy Allison, Joan Mason, Sandra Knupp, and Allen Jones.

The Advertising Staff is the foundation of any good yearbook. Working in rainy, drab weather, the Arrowhead staff solicited ads to help cover the cost of publishing the Arrowhead. The total assists of 1965 topped those of former years, which included many award-winners.

Judy Crawford receives instructions from photographer, Allen Jones, whose duty was to see that pictures were available by the deadline.

Joan Mason and Cheryl Thomas, typists, consult about the copy before transferring it to master layout sheets.

STAFF

Heading the editorial staff, editor Sandra Knupp discusses the Arrowhead's progress with Carroll Turner, junior editor, and sponsor, Mrs. Marston.

EDITORIAL STAFF

The job of the editorial staff is a heavy one indeed. It is their duty to schedule pictures and work so that each and every deadline is met. Also, before the master layout sheets are mailed the editorial staff must carefully proofread and check the separate pages. This year's staff finds that publishing an annual is a time consuming but rewarding task.

The copy staff must carefully select and arrange words to tell the year's story. Working with the copy editor, Rita Silver, are juniors Judy Crawford and Doris Bryant.

The job of the lay-out staff is to see that there is a pleasing contrast between facing pages. Composing the staff is layout editor, Toni Teague, who works conjunctively with juniors Theresa Early and Jane Nichols.

As deadlines draw near, annual staff meetings are often called to synchronize multiple activities.

LIBRARIANS CLUB

Functioning as an aid to teachers, the Librarians Club had a busy year. The members are the following: FIRST ROW: Sharon Hendley, Lavonne Conner, Delores Robertson, Elaine Sutton, Marcia Gilliam, Susan Frye, Nancy Bailey, Judy Allison, Joan Gillispie, Pat Connor. SECOND ROW: Nancy Moore, Shirley Hartwell, Cheryl Davis, Judy Hipps, Norma Blankenship, Gail Hudgins, Susan Davis, Sharon Burleson, Frances Pittman, Elizabeth McPeters. THIRD ROW: Dewey Croom, John McEntire, Donnie Elliot, Wanda Padgett, Tony Silver, June Padgett, Gary Davis, Shirley Jenkins, Ken Burleson, Sheila Hipps, Larry Smith, Daniel Effler, Kenneth McGinnis and Guy McGinnis.

Mrs. May Clapp, club sponsor, demonstrates to several grammar grade children the correct way to check out books, one of her many duties. She is ably assisted by the club officers, Shirley Hartwell, Judy Allison, Joan Gillispie, Ken Burleson, and Cheryl Davis.

Frequent use of the library facilities is encouraged; here two students work on a biology project.

BUS DRIVERS

Day-in and day-out, the bus drivers, Alvin McGinnis, Vernon Davis, Mary Sue Davis, Albert Bailey, Bobby Suttlemyre, Charles Bartlett, Max Gilliam, and Danny Willis transport a large majority of the student body to and from school.

OFFICE WORKERS

Mrs. Margie Thomason, school secretary, is greatly aided by the assistance of the office workers who are Bonnie Harris, Pat Elliott, Pat Connor, Susie Davis, Jeanette Lewis, Elaine Sutton, Jewell Effler, Jo Ann Lunsford, Linda Lytle, Margaret Smith, and Gail Baker.

As they become a more integral part of school activities, band members begin to realize the importance of those long hours of practice.

Band Enters 2nd Year

As it enters its second year, Old Fort's band is participating in more and more school activities. Since presenting its first program in November, 1963, the band has played at graduation exercises, performed at home football games, and presented music at a number of chapel programs and pep rallies. At the present time, the band consists of 42 members, plus a beginners' class. In the future, OFS students will see their band performing at more and more school functions.

To Mr. Joseph DeNardo, director, who has inspired members with his patience and dedication, goes much of the credit for the band's success.

Their batons raised in salute, the majorettes stand at attention as the band plays the national anthem.

Leading the band are majorettes Sherry Griggs, Joan Mason, chief, Brenda Bartlett, Beverly Medford, Terry Hennessee, Myrna Lipe, and Judy Moore.

ATHLETICS

Working hard and playing the game for all it was worth, these young men served their school as worthy ambassadors this year. FIRST ROW: Tommy Jones, Bobby Sutton, Hank Caplan, Mike Gibbs, Eddie Knowlton, Jerry Harris, Jack Piercy, Randy Silver, Donnie Lytle, Johnny Silver, Alan Baker. SECOND ROW: Larry Moore, Jimmy Moore, Randy Nichols, Alvin Turner, Robert Hartwell, Larry Burgin, Charles Bartlett, Terry Hendley, Mike Ramsey, Ronnie Evans, Mike Hensley, James Knupp, Jack Stevens, manager. THIRD ROW: Tony Baker, Roger Johnson, Ray Allison, Garvin Davis, Billy Lytle, Ronald Silver, Larry Camp, Carroll Turner, Richard Johnson, Larry Walker, Leonard Walker, Dean Thomason, Mike Chrisawn, Ronnie Condrey.

Fullback Jimmy Moore and guard Terry Hendley ably served as the Redskin co-captains, leading their team into action every Friday night.

Injuries and letdowns were the rule as the Redskins experienced a disappointing season. A season-ending victory helped to ease some of the pains as the team triumphed 18-9 over Crossnore. All-Conference honorable mention went to Billy Lytle, end; Tommy Johnson, halfback; and Terry Hendley, guard. A highly successful Junior varsity team will be furnishing many fine young players for next season.

Working as a unit, the Redskins move in on the opposing backfield.

J.V.'S ARE UNDEFEATED

Not only has Old Fort had an undefeated boys' varsity, but also an undefeated J. V. team. Composed of 8 freshmen and 4 sophomores, this year's J. V.'s have a perfect record of 11-0. Though their opposition has consisted of older, more experienced boys, they have maintained an average of 60 points per game while holding the opposition to an average of 30 points. These records indicate that Old Fort fans can look forward to seeing another winning team.

TRACK

Mascot:

"Are we in it? No, we're not. We're not in it - We're on TOP."

Cheerleaders fret about the action on the field before leading a rousing cheer.

CHEERLEADERS BOOST SCHOOL SPIRIT

Spending a great deal of their time practicing and leading fans in spirited cheers are, FIRST ROW: Linda Wilson, Bonnie Harris, and Sharon Hendley. SECOND ROW: Jane Flintom, Pat Grindstaff, and Jo Lytle.

Coach Jim Washburn, working with co-captains Catherine Robinson, Linda Lytle, Shirley Hartwell, and Rita Silver, helped to make the season a great success for the team.

Shirley Hartwell, senior guard, was an asset to the team with her rebounding strength.

REDSKIN MAIDENS

Ending the season with a 12 - 8 record, the Maidens placed second in the Skyline Conference and third in county play. Coach Washburn considered the season a success compared to past seasons. Libby Piercy, top scorer for the Maidens, was named to the All-County Team. Team spirit, cooperation, and hard play urged the Maidens to their many victories.

Senior Rita Silver alternated as roving forward and proved herself one of the top scorers.

As rover, junior Judy Crawford proved her prowess as both forward and guard.

Agnes Effler, junior forward, and Theresa Early, junior guard, serve competently as first string substitutes.

Demonstrating her ball handling ability, Linda Lytle, senior, passes the ball up court.

Outstanding offensive rebounding made Catherine Robinson a very valuable player for the Maidens.

Though only a junior, Libby Piercy exercised her shooting ability throughout the season by high scoring in many of the games.

An unbeatable combination, the Old Fort Redskins boast of some of the finest individual as well as team players. Comprising the team are Jimmy Willis, Carroll Turner, Mickey Arney, Wayne McCauley, Ralph Willis, Billy Lytle, Danny Willis, David Rhinehardt, Troy Kelly, Roger Souther, manager; Johnny Oates, Coach Ken Griffin, Billy Snyder, and Billy Craig.

THE REDSKINS

The Redskins finished the regular season with a perfect record of 20 - 0. Hustle, desire, and teamplay were the main characteristics of the Old Fort powerhouse. With their outstanding season, the Redskins brought home the Skyline Conference Championship and the McDowell County Conference and Tournament Championships. Coach Ken Griffin was honored by being named coach of the Blue team in the Blue-White All-Star game. Representing Old Fort on the All-Conference and Blue-White team were co-captains Mickey Arney and Danny Willis.

Co-captain Mickey Arney shows his jumping ability by dunking the ball. His steady all-around play kept the Redskins on top.

Wayne McCauley shows the hustle which led the Redskins to a perfect season by recovering a loose ball against Salem.

Captain Jimmy Willis shows his unstoppable hook shot which helped lead the Redskins to their first perfect season.

Dependable senior, Buzz Willis, being of great value in rebounding, also possesses a soft jump shot of great accuracy.

Billy Craig, a senior guard, demonstrates his deadly jumper which greatly aided the powerful Redskins.

REDSKINS END PERFECT SEASON

Possessing a deadly jump shot, senior and co-captain Danny Willis exhibits the perfect form which made him a leader in the potent Redskin offense.

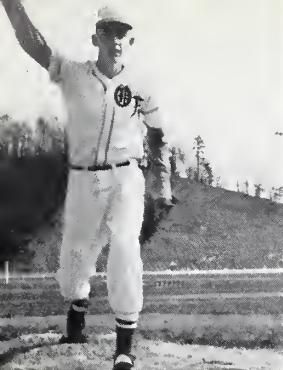

High scoring guard Billy Lytle, a junior, also proved himself a top defensive man and pulled the Redskins through in many tight spots.

Sophomore Wayne McCauley proved a valuable asset to the team with his ability to rebound and key the fast break.

BASEBALL

Pitcher Wayne McCauley warms up before a game.

Though the Redskins lost 3 of their first 4 games last season, they went on to finish the season with a 10-4 record. In the McDowell County Tournament they tied with North Cove for first place, and were consequently ranked second. Jimmy Moore, whose hitting and relief pitching added much to the season's success was voted Most Valuable Player. Prospects, according to Coach Ken Griffin, are good for the upcoming season. With Wayne McCauley as starting pitcher, Jimmy Moore as the team's top hitter, and with the cooperation of other team members, this season looks promising.

COACH SAYS PROSPECTS ARE GOOD

As baseball season draws closer, planning sessions between coach and team members become more frequent. Making seasonal plans are Steve Allison, Jimmy Willis, Tommy Johnson, Jimmy Moore, Danny Willis, and Coach Ken Griffin.
